The Prince's Foundation for
Children & the Arts

Inspiring arts ideas for teachers

Use the arts in your classroom and encourage your pupils to realise their creative potential.

A motivational training day organised by The Prince's Foundation for Children & the Arts on 12 March 2009 at Kensington Palace, Palace Green, W8 4PU

Only 30 places! BOOK NOW!

"It's absolutely central for children to get involved. We cannot live without children connecting with the arts. That's not to be allowed."

Ben Haggarty, an advocate of the art of professional performance storytelling and Kate Norgate, who co-founded the London Centre for International Storytelling in 2004 will start the day.

Baz Lurhmann,
Ambassador for Children
& the Arts

Followed by practical workshops, led by experts in:

- Storytelling
- Music
- Drama
